

Smoking Permitted

Environmental tobacco smoke (secondhand smoke) has been classified by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency as a Category A carcinogen and poses a serious health risk.

Those with heart disease, respiratory disease, infants or pregnant women should not enter the premises.

McLean County
Health Department
Partners in Prevention